↓ Extension lecture on the eve of International Women's Day

March 7th, 2018

An erudite professor, Swami Agnivesh is a social activist of national repute. He shared his experiences of getting the reemergence of 'Sati' banned and prohibited in India. Touching upon a number of social evils like female foeticide, female infanticide, dowry-system, illiteracy, caste-based discrimination and lack of self-discipline, motivation and will-power, Swami Agnivesh critiqued Indian history through the ages and invited and inspired the students for becoming a positive force for bringing about much needed social change and revolution. Sh. Agnivesh also elaborated his work against the bonded labourers. His lectures followed by an interactive session which was very interesting. More than 150 students participated in this activity.
