Extension Lecture

The Placement Cell of College organised extension lecture on the topic of "Higher Education in India and Career Prospects" on 6 Nov. 2019 at Seminar Hall. The cell invited eminent speaker Mr. Kiran from Cutkara University to enrich the students knowledge on the topic. The speaker told students about the preparation for different kind of interviews. He said that everyone should first analyse himself by doing his own SWOT Analysis. The speaker engaged students in various activities to make them attentive in the lecture. The speaker motivated students to unlearn and relearn the knowledge. He told students about various options available to them after graduation. Dr. Atul Yadav, Mr. Sandeep, Mr. Rupesh Rai and Mrs. Sarita Kumari were present during the lecture. The speaker presented the knowledge in an interesting way and students enjoyed that a lot. The students responded very positively on questions by the speaker. The speaker motivated students to be focused on their goals. The lecture ended with vote of Thanks by Dr. Atul Yadav.

Placement cell of the college invited Sh. Naresh Kumar, Assistant Professor of Economics Govt College Barwala (Haryana) to deliver his extension lectures on the topics 'Self Employment opportunities in Small Scale Industry' and 'Self Employment in Self Help Groups' on March 3, 2020 to the students of Economics of the college. Sh. Naresh told the students that in the era of Consumerism it is not possible to give jobs to each employer. So keep in mind the job in Govt sector we have to look towards the private and Govt aided sector. Small scale industry can play a role of job sector in present times. With this small scale industry residents of village can make a group of their own kind and they can become job givers. To use our cultural heritage as the traditional equipments of home keep, we can make use of these equipments to sell it out in ~~any~~ cities. Programme organised by the Govt sector or ministry of welfare these self help groups use their equipment and they can become service providers. With the help of ~~PRY~~ PRY, Panchayat members educated youth who has some talent or have skill in any special area take financial help and can start their own business. In this era of Consumerism Sh. Naresh told the students that they can start their own business with the help of other Govt organisations and guest provides subsidy to them. He told the students to attend lecture of the resource person called by the placement cells in college. ~~Students~~ keeping in view the modest means one should ~~not~~ charge his/her occupation or business. Placement cell of the college invited, Dr. Suman, Bela, Assistant Professor of Economics, Govt. Girls College, Ambala Cantt. to deliver two extent lectures to the students of economics of the college especially P.G. students. Her topics are 'Self Help Groups for Employment Generation and Employment Opportunities in Agriculture, Diversified Activities'. Dr. Suman Bela told the students that in the time of economic crisis, the country is facing a problem of unemployment. It becomes very difficult to the government to provide job opportunities. So, it's our duty to use our resources and techniques to find ways for job to overcome this problem. Central & State governments started many schemes which are divided in different sectors that is i.e. urban rural, male-female etc. She talked about self help groups to generate employment. Such type of schemes of the govt. are very much beneficial for the youth and because of lack of advertisement youth of colleges do not know anything about it. Awareness about such type of schemes and policies is the need of the hour. Self Help Groups of Girls can use our traditional & cultural ornaments and some other domestic food for creating job in the rural areas and it can be processed in a large scale when they come in contact with the urban youth by making another group in urban areas. and the cultural programs also associated with this group.

Religious festivals can also be associated with this. Mrs. Suman told the students about Employment Opportunities in Agriculture & Other -related Activities'. Mrs. Ramash Ahlawat and Shri Rajesh Kumar <sup>were</sup> present in the lecture.

88 students attended the Extension Lecture.
