Tagging 10 Types of Unoriginal Work

The Plagiarism Spectrum identifies 10 types of plagiarism based on findings from a worldwide survey of nearly 900 secondary and higher education instructors. Each type has been tagged with an easy-to-remember digital moniker, defined, ranked by severity (#1-10), and scored by frequency of appearance (1=least, 10=most).

SEVERITY		FREQUENCY
#1	Clone Submitting another's work, word-for-word, as one's own.	9.5
#2	CTRL-C Copying significant portions of text from a single source without alterations.	8.9
#3	Find &amp; Replace Changing key words and phrases but retaining the essential content of the source.	3.9
#4	Remix Paraphrasing from multiple sources, made to fit together.	5.6
#5	Recycle Borrowing generously from one's previous work without citation.	5.5
#6	Hybrid Combining perfectly cited sources with copied passages without citation.	5
#7	Mashup Mixing copied material from multiple sources.	9.1
#8	404 Error Citing non-existent sources or including inaccurate information about sources.	6
#9	Aggregator Including proper citation of sources but containing almost no original work.	2.8
#10	Re-tweet Including proper citation but using wording too closely on the original structure.	4.4

Placement cell of the college invited Sh. Naresh Kumar, Assistant Professor of Economics Govt College Barwala (Hisar) to deliver two extension lectures on the topics 'Self Employment opportunities in Small Scale Industry' and 'Self Employment in Self Help Groups' on March 3, 2020 to the students of Economics of the college. Sh. Naresh told the students that in the era of consumerism it is not possible to give jobs to each employee. So keep in mind the job jobs in Govt sector we have to look towards the private and Govt aided sector. Small scale industry can play a role of job sector in present times. With the small scale industry residents of village can make a group of the name 'Kudhan' and they can become job givers. To use our cultural heritage and the traditional equipments of handloom, we can make use of these equipments to sell it out in ~~our~~ cities. Presumably, organ by the Govt sector or ministry of culture these self help groups use their equipment and they can become service providers. With the help of ~~PRY~~ P.R.Y. Panchayat Pradhan educated youth who has some talent or having skill in any field can take financial help and can start his own business. In this era of consumerism Sh. Naresh told the students that they can start their own business with the help of other Govt organisations and just provides subsidy do them. He told the students to attend lecture of the resource persons called by the placement cells in college. ~~students~~ keeping in view the market needs one should ~~be~~ change his/her occupation or business. Dr. Pankaj S. Phalawat, Sh. Nidhi Kumar, Sh. Rajesh Kumar, Sh. Pradeep Kumar were also present in the lecture.

Her topics are 'Self Help Groups for Employment Generation' and 'Employment Opportunities in Agriculture Diversified Activities'. Dr. Suman Bala told the students that in the time of economic crisis you are facing a problem of unemployment. It becomes very difficult to the government to provide job opportunities. So, it's our duty to use our resources and techniques and knowledge for job to overcome this problem. Central & State governments started many schemes which are divided in different sectors that is i.e. urban rural, male-female etc. She talked about self help groups to generate employment. Such type of schemes of the govt are very much beneficial for the youth and because of lack of advertisement youth of colleges do not know anything about it. Awareness about such type of schemes and policies is the need of the hour. Self Help Groups of Girls ~~but~~ can use our traditional & cultural ornaments and some other domestic food for creating job in the rural areas and it can be processed in a large scale when they came in contact with the urban youth by making another group in urban areas, and the cultural programs also associated with this group.

Religious festivals can also be associated with this. Mes. Suman told the students about Employment Opportunities in Agriculture & Interrelated Activities'. Mrs. Ramash Ahlawat and
