Report

One Day National Seminar on Entrepreneurship Development: A Step towards Self Reliant India"

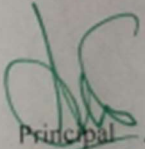

Organized By: Entrepreneurship Development Cell in collaboration with Department of Commerce,

Govt. P.G. College Ambala Cantt

Dated: 11/02/2021

One day National Seminar (Webinar) on the topic Entrepreneurship Development: A Step towards Self Reliant India" was organized by Entrepreneurship Development Cell in collaboration with the Department of Commerce of Government P.G. College, Ambala Cantt on 11.02.2021 in which more than 200 delegates from different parts of the country marked their online participation. The welcome address was delivered by respected Principal Sir, Mr. Arun Joshi, in which he highlighted that Entrepreneurship is a key economic development indicator as well as basis for Industrial development and employment generation. Followed by this the coordinator of the seminar Dr. Des Raj Bajwa, familiarized the audience with the theme and objectives of the seminar. For Technical Session I Resource person Ms. Indu Aggarwal, an eminent personality in the field of Entrepreneurship, cited that entrepreneurship is the need of an hour as it explores the undetected potential by the corporate sector due to societal conditioning. She emphasized that Entrepreneurship does not need huge investment. In Technical Session II, the Entrepreneurship basics were further enhanced and well described by Mr. Sanjay Aggarwal, a visionary entrepreneur having 12 years of corporate experience. He stressed that big thinking is the base for Entrepreneurship Development and Entrepreneurs create a legacy for family as well as for society. He highlighted that we need a serious and conscious change in our education system and society's mindset. Further Dr. Shagun Ahuja, Nodal Officer ED Cell presented the report of the seminar and vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Parmil Kumar. Thus the seminar very well achieved its objectives and the event was a great success.
